CAMP SHELBY, MISSISSIPPI

Is named for a famed leader of men of Colonial Days, Colonel Isaac Shelby. Created during the World War days, the camp was named in honor of a fighter who earned a niche in history's hall by performing valiantly in the Revolutionary War. Camp Shelby is the second largest training camp. Built to accommodate 55,000 men.

D. E. LEVINE NEWS AGENCY, HATTIESBURG, MISS.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C.T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U.S PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
ONE CENT
STAMP
HERE

Among the Pines at Camp Shelby, Mississippi

1B-H445